

MCA 2018 Application for Masterclass with Krzysztof Jablonski

October 27, 2018, McDougall United Church in Edmonton, Alberta

ARMTA invites advanced piano students (minimum grade 10) to apply to participate in a masterclass with prolific world-class pianist Krzysztof Jablonski, 1985 Laureate and now jury member of the F. Chopin International Piano Competition in Warsaw. Participants will experience the artistic depth of this prolific world-class pianist and benefit from the skills and insights gained in a career spanning more than 30 years and earning him top prizes at international piano competitions in Milan, Palm Beach, Monza, Dublin, Calgary, as well as a Gold Medal at the A. Rubinstein International Piano Master Competition in Tel Aviv.

The masterclass will take place on Saturday, October 27 at 1:30 pm – 2:45 pm, and is part of Music Conference Alberta (October 25-27) at McDougall United Church in Edmonton, AB.

- There is a $10 participant fee to be received at the event. Participants (and one guardian) are granted a one day conference registration for Saturday by Music Conference Alberta. Participants are responsible for their own transportation and expenses.
- Applications are due September 3, 2018.
- Applicants will be confirmed by September 14, 2018. In the event that more applications are received than spots available, students will be chosen based on their repertoire. Participant fees will be refunded to those unable to participate.
- A maximum of 1 application per teacher will be accepted.
- Each student should have 15-20 minutes with Mr. Jablonski.
