PURPOSE

Music Conference Alberta (MCA) is Alberta's premier conference for band directors, choral conductors, elementary music teachers, and studio music instructors. Through more than 40 interest sessions and a series of concerts, MCA provides valuable professional development opportunities for all music educators. The goal of the conference is to share ideas and information, equipping music educators with pedagogical tools and thereby elevating the standard of music education in our province.

HISTORY

Alberta's provincial music conference has long been a professional development staple for music teachers in the province. After a brief period of separate discipline-based conferences in the early 2000's, a unified conference – Music Conference Alberta – was re-established in 2007. MCA is a joint venture of Choir Alberta, Alberta Band Association, Alberta Music Education Foundation, and the Alberta Registered Music Teachers' Association. Today, more than 300 music educators teaching at all levels – elementary school through university and community music – attend the conference.

WHAT DELEGATES SAY ABOUT MCA

With all of my heart, I can say I have left Music Conference Alberta every single year for a decade completely inspired, amazed, excited, and feeling like I had connected with many other professionals like myself who otherwise can often feel isolated and alone. If you are a Music Educator, attend – you won't regret it. If you are an administrator, encourage your Music Educators of every level and discipline to attend. Truly, this conference helps to deliver to the students of Alberta the caliber of Music Professional they so rightfully deserve.

As a first-time attendee, I was impressed with Music Conference Alberta. There were so many opportunities for learning and connection, and a great variety of speakers who addressed many issues that I see in my classes. I found resources and made connections at the trade show which influenced my spring band trip. Most importantly, I met music teachers from across the province that I was able to share ideas and network with, and I'm looking forward to going back next year!

*-Adam Mailman, Music Teacher
Georges P. Vanier School, Calgary*

As a music educator I have always looked forward to attending Music Conference Alberta every year. There are opportunities provided for my professional growth by the amazing interest sessions that we have to choose from, as well as the ability to connect with the industry professionals in the Marketplace. The part of music conference that keeps me coming back however is the chance to connect with my colleagues from across the province. MCA should be a part of every music educator's year plan!

MCA is the single annual conference that brings together music teachers of all disciplines in the province of Alberta. For more than ten years, I have attended this conference and shared in the rich experiences that all conference delegates encounter.
